

Excerpt from City of Bothell Web Page January 14, 2009
<http://www.ci.bothell.wa.us/dept/CM/PIO/NewsEvents/EventPages/centennial/index.html>

CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION!

The one-year countdown is now underway for City of Bothell's Centennial on April 14, 2009! Although the plans are still evolving for the City's celebration, the great memories and excitement for the future will lead the way. Bothell has come a long way since its incorporation in 1909, and the excitement is only growing for the next 100 years!

The planning of special Centennial events is in progress, with more updates to come soon. Check future issues of the Bothell Bylines as well as this web site for updates!

Bothell's historic Northcreek Schoolhouse was moved to its new home at Centennial Park on Nov. 15. Read more here
Click here to watch the video

Fun Fact: When Bothell was first incorporated in 1909, there were approximately 600 residents. Today there are more than 31,000 residents!

Fun Fact: This is a picture of City Hall in 1940. Did you know that the same building houses City Hall today?

Ryan Goedeke was one of many who came out to help plant daffodils at the City's Centennial Planting Event on Sat. Oct. 4. These volunteers successfully planted almost 5,000 bulbs on that rainy day. In the spring, the hard work will be displayed at Cedar Grove Park, Stipek Park and the Park at Bothell Landing with beautiful daffodils.

