

Not An Official Copy

Office of the Mayor Tukwila, Washington

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the City of Tukwila and its residents remember those whose lives were cut short by senseless acts of terrorism in New York, Washington D.C. and Pennsylvania, on September 11, 2001; and

WHEREAS, we remember those who tirelessly and selflessly gave of their energies, talents and resources on that day and the year that has since passed, for the remembrance and advancement of those who survived that horrific day; and

WHEREAS, we also remember our own fire fighters who assisted with search and rescue efforts in New York, as well as those who remained here to protect and serve our own community, constantly working to preserve peace and freedom on our home front; and

WHEREAS, we will forever be grateful for our service men and women, our firefighters, police officers, and veterans for keeping a constant vigil to ensure our protection, as well as other public employees, professionals and officials who give so much to protect our safety and freedom in this great nation and the City of Tukwila; and

WHEREAS, we acknowledge the need to remain a united nation of strength, endurance and perseverance;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, STEVEN M. MULLET, MAYOR of the City of Tukwila, do hereby proclaim September 11, 2002, as for the citizens of Tukwila, and encourage each community member to remember, with honor and respect, those who continually watch over our community and our country.

A DAY OF REMEMBRANCE, UNITY AND HOPE

Signed this _____ day of September, 2002.

Steven M. Mullet
Mayor of Tukwila

