

RESOLUTION NO. 2005-01

A RESOLUTION OF THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF POULSBO, WASHINGTON, ESTABLISHING THE CONDITIONS UNDER WHICH THE POULSBO FARMERS MARKET SHALL BE GRANTED LICENSE TO CONDUCT THE MARKET ON PRIVATE PROPERTY IN THE CITY

WHEREAS, Ordinance No. 2004-02 granted a license to Poulsbo Farmers Market, a non-profit corporation organized under the laws of the State of Washington, to conduct business on private property in the City of Poulsbo from July through October of 2004 enabling the stimulation of business, tourism and revenues for the community as well as promoting community pride; and

WHEREAS, upon deliberation, Council has determined the Farmers Market should be granted an ongoing license in the city and Ordinance No. 2005-01 adopted by Council grants such ongoing license;

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the City Council of the City of Poulsbo, Washington establishes the following conditions to be met by Poulsbo Farmers Market in exercising their license to conduct business on private property in the City of Poulsbo beginning in the spring and continuing through the fall of each year. The Poulsbo Farmers Market shall:

1. Annually, prior to startup of the Farmers Market each spring, provide to the City Clerk documentation of permission by the property owner(s) given to the Poulsbo Farmers Market to conduct business on private property within the City of Poulsbo.

2. Provide to the City Clerk a copy of the Poulsbo Farmers Market Bylaws and to provide in a timely fashion any revision to those Bylaws.

3. Prior to startup each spring, obtain a Special Event business license for the Poulsbo Farmers Market as provided in Poulsbo Municipal Code 5.04. If more than one location is used for the Poulsbo Farmers Market, a Special Event business license shall be obtained for each location.

4. Comply with any ingress/egress, traffic and/or parking requirements that may be identified and required by the city;
5. Comply with all requirements of the Kitsap Health Department for food handling and preparation, as appropriate;
6. At the time of applying for the Special Event business license each spring, provide to the City Clerk a list of all participating vendors including the business name, mailing address, telephone number and state sales tax (UBI) number and update that list whenever additional vendors join the Farmers Market;
7. As may be required by city departments, provide a map or layout of booths and booth numbers, if appropriate, and the vendor assigned to each booth;
8. Clean up the area at the end of each day the event is held during the season to ensure debris from the event does not impact public property; and
9. Hold the City of Poulsbo harmless from any and all claims or damages asserted against the City because of this license.

RESOLVED this 5th day of January 2005.
