

City of Arlington

Executive

PROCLAMATION HONORING CENTENARIAN ANNA LOCKHART

WHEREAS, Anna Lockhart was born in County Cork, Ireland, January 28, 1906 and migrated to the United States arriving in New York where she was married and started a family, a boy and a girl. The boy is deceased and the daughter Maureen lives in Marysville with her husband; and

WHEREAS, Anna performed those important duties of motherhood taking care of the children and husband; and

WHEREAS, Anna also became a nurse at the well known Lenos Hill Hospital for many years; and

WHEREAS, Anna and family moved to Colorado Springs, Colorado about 1972 and became active as a volunteer in the community and was awarded many honors for her outstanding performance enhancing the quality of life for those she served; and

WHEREAS, After 28 years in Colorado Springs, Anna and family moved to Washington State and now resides in Rosecreek Adult Community where her many honors decorate her apartment; and

WHEREAS, According to Father Jim Dalton Immaculate Conception, Anna's faith is very strong and active in church;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED THAT THE 100th BIRTHDAY PARTY ON JANUARY 28, 2006 BE A MEMORABLE OCCASION WITH HER FRIENDS COMING FROM NEAR AND FAR WISHING HER "HAPPY BIRTHDAY."

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Margaret Larson, Mayor of the City of Arlington, do hereby proclaim January 28, 2006 as

"Anna Lockhart Day"

Dated this 17th day of January, 2006.

Margaret Larson, Mayor