should be granted.

This Court makes the following conclusions:

1. There is no genuine dispute of material fact and plaintiffs are entitled to judgment as a matter of law.
2. Initiative 722 violates the single-subject provision, Wash. Const. Art. II, sec. 19, and, therefore, the entire Initiative is unconstitutional.
3. Initiative 722 violates the uniformity clause, Wash. Const. Art. VII, sec. 1, and, therefore, the entire taxing scheme is unconstitutional.
4. Initiative 722 violates Art. II, sec. 37 of the Washington Constitution.
5. Initiative 722 violates Art. VIII, sec. 7 of the Washington Constitution and, therefore, section 1 of Initiative 722 is unconstitutional.
6. The Court holds that Initiative 722 does not violate the subject-in-title provision of Wash. Const. Art. II, sec. 19. The ballot title reflects the Initiative.
7. The Court holds that Initiative 722 does not violate Art. XI, sec. 12.

It is accordingly ORDERED, ADJUDGED, and DECREED that:

1. The Plaintiffs' Motions For Summary Judgment On The Class Claims be, and hereby are, GRANTED.
2. The Defendants' Motions for Summary Judgment are DENIED.
3. Initiative 722 is hereby declared unconstitutional, null, and void in its entirety.
4. Implementation and enforcement of Initiative 722 shall be, and hereby is, permanently enjoined. This injunction binds the State and all of its political subdivisions. It binds the parties to these cases, the classes, and all of their employees, agents, subdivisions, and others acting in concert with them.

Each and every one of such persons and entities are accordingly enjoined from implementing or enforcing Initiative 722.

5. In light of the foregoing, the Court does not need to decide the motion by several "Burien cases" plaintiff cities for summary judgment on certain interpretive issues.

6. The Court finds that there is no just reason for delay and hereby certifies this case for appeal pursuant to CR 54(b).

DONE IN OPEN COURT this 23rd day of February, 2001.
